

I have enjoyed a variety of roles in local, national and international operations across multiple sectors, where the development of strategic business & humanistic plans has become a crucial part of day-to-day commercial activities.

Often working in highly political environments I have successfully managed issues around Cultural, Organisational and Structural change, Innovation in Business, New Business Development, Market Exits, Mergers & Acquisitions and Federal & State Government enquiries.

I have also consulted to a wide variety of businesses providing strategic high-level Professional Mentoring, Coaching & Motivational Solutions to business owners, Directors and CEO's.
